

Customized Destination Weddings Without the Stress

Picture being barefoot on the beach against a backdrop of the Caribbean's turquoise waters. Or saying "I do" while floating in a gondola in Venice with a photographer capturing the moment from the shore. Or carrying a bouquet of wildflowers down the aisle of a small, stone chapel in Ireland. The options are endless, but they all share one similarity—they are no-fuss weddings. That's exactly what we give every couple who comes to the office and asks for help. Maybe this is your second wedding or you already have children. Perhaps you are renewing your vows or simply want a ceremony that is small and under control. Destination weddings are about the couple, not about the party.

However, trying to plan a destination wedding on your own is a complicated business. It's such an overwhelming process to figure out. There are endless websites, and you really need to know what you are looking for. That's where Travel Central come in. We've been designing the perfect destination wedding for couples for years, and each one is more special than the last.
